DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 12: "...and extends vertically into the batt of fibres..." appears to be new matter. Page 3, lines 17-19 discloses that there is a discontinuous layer containing a mixture of batt fibres and a polymer-batt fibre matrix present in the situation where the discontinuous layer (i.e. both the batt fibres and the polymer-batt fibre matrix) extends vertically into the fabric. This section of the specification, which applicant has used to support the amendment to claim 12 does not disclose that that the particulate polymeric material alone extends into the batt of fibres.

Therefore the amendment to claim 12 is new matter.

The applicant is requested to cancel all new matter.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 22, 28 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a) Claim 22: the use of two "and's" makes the Markush group confusing; "strongly" is not defined and is therefore vague; it is not clear what "based" and "for" modify.

b) Claim 28: it appears that ethoxylated ether is a surfactant, and therefore the Markush group is confusing.

c) Claim 34: it is not clear when the needling is done in the process.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. The rejection of Claims 12-26 and 34-41 and 43-44 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dutt (4847116) is withdrawn because of the amendment filed 6/30/2009, but will be reinstated when the new matter (see paragraph 2 above) is deleted.

7. The rejection of Claims 27-30 and 42 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dutt (4847116) taken in view of Eklund et al (5298124) is withdrawn because of the amendment filed 6/30/2009, but will be reinstated when the new matter (see paragraph 2 above) is deleted.
